

Activity 2: Countries of South America

Name: _____

Date: _____

Did you know?

There are 13 countries in South America (well, actually there are 12, because French Guiana is a part of France).

Countries
(we will visit)	(we will miss this time)
Argentina	Venezuela
Chile	Guyana
Bolivia	Suriname
Peru	French Guiana
Ecuador	Brazil
Colombia	Paraguay
	Uruguay

Word Search

All of the names of the countries are hidden somewhere here.

Use the lists in the box above to:

1. Circle all 6 countries we will visit with a red crayon.
2. Circle all 7 countries we will miss this time with a purple crayon.

Remember, words might be written forwards, backwards, upside down or diagonally. Sometimes, the words might share letters. Good luck!

Activity 2: Countries of South America

Map of the World

Do you remember:

1. Which countries have we already visited? Use a green crayon to color them on the map.
2. Which countries will we still visit on this trip? Use a yellow crayon to color them on the map.
3. Color the countries we will miss on this trip with a blue crayon.

Using the map on our Kids' Corner page, do the following:

1. Find where we are now. Put a dot there and write the name of the town.
2. Put a dot where La Paz is and write, "La Paz" next to it.
3. Put a dot where Santiago is and write, "Santiago" next to it.
4. Put a dot where Ushuaia is and write, "Ushuaia" next to it.

Now, use a black marker to draw the path we took from Ushuaia to where we are now.
